Introducing Glenmore House situated in the lovely village of Wick which is a conservation area. This stunning character home, with over 4,000 sqft of beautifully renovated living space. This exceptional property has been lovingly restored by its current owners.

As you step inside, you'll be greeted by a magnificent entrance hall, from which each room seamlessly flows, creating a perfect space for entertaining family and friends. Four spacious reception rooms, along with a separate snug, offering a wealth of versatile living areas, all tastefully decorated and showcasing their own unique style. Four fireplaces adorning five of these fabulous rooms, including two inglenooks, you'll experience warmth and elegance throughout.

For the practicalities of everyday life, there is a large boot room, offering a perfect retreat for family pets. Complete with an adjacent shower room.

The farmhouse-style kitchen breakfast room providing ample space for both the cook of the house and casual family gatherings. With its generous proportions, this room easily accommodates a large table and offers plenty of storage.

As you ascend the oak staircase which splits into two separate areas, you'll discover five double bedrooms, each exuding its own individual charm. The principal bedroom has an en-suite bathroom, adding a touch of luxury to your everyday routine. And for moments of relaxation, the stylish family bathroom awaits, featuring a clawfoot bath and a walk-in shower.

Step outside to the beautifully maintained walled gardens, mature trees and abundant flower beds with a summer house and a patio area, you'll have the perfect setting for outdoor activities all year long.

The long gravelled driveway, accessed from the end of the walled garden, leads to a detached double garage, providing ample parking space.

Tucked away at the rear of the property, you'll discover an enclosed courtyard garden, bathed in the warm glow of the west-facing sun. From here, direct access into the boot room ensures convenience.
