Fox Town and Country Homes

As you step inside, you are greeted by a truly striking sitting room. This room is adorned with an exposed beamed, vaulted ceiling, adding a touch of grandeur to the space. The centerpiece of the room is a log burning stove, housed in a red brick surround, perfect for cosy evenings by the fire. The property successfully blends contemporary and character throughout with all the necessities for 21st century living.

The kitchen-breakfast room has solid oak floors and exposed beamed ceiling; a lovely room in which to prepare meals making it a chef's dream, meticulously designed and beautifully equipped with excellent storage and built-in appliances. Adjacent to the kitchen, a utility room adds practicality to your daily routines with a door leading to the garden. Additionally, a ground floor bathroom ensures convenience and future-proofs your living arrangements for later years.

A unique feature of this property is the spiral staircase, which leads to a mezzanine study/further fourth bedroom, providing a quiet and secluded space for work or relaxation. The landing area is spacious and flooded with natural light, creating an inviting atmosphere. From here, you can access two double bedrooms, each offering comfort and style. The exceptional bathroom is sure to impress, providing a luxurious retreat within your own home.

Parking is made easy with a garage and ample private parking spaces. The gardens surrounding the property are stunning offering a great deal of privacy. Mature trees, spring and summer flower beds, and an ornamental pond create a picturesque setting. A patio area provides the perfect place for outdoor dining and entertaining.
