LUXURY LIVING...

Sacheverell Place, named in honor of Lord Sacheverell, the former owner of the Barton Estate in the 1600s, which later evolved into the Clifton Estate and Clifton Hall, is the exquisite backdrop for this grand detached new build home. It stands as the epitome of exclusivity, destined to be the cherished dream residence for any fortunate buyer. Located in the highly regarded village of Barton-in-Fabis, this quaint locale offers the perfect blend of serenity and accessibility, with excellent transport links to both The City and the M1. The property itself is a masterpiece of modern design and high-spec finishes, ensuring luxury and comfort at every turn. As you step into the grand Atrium entrance, you're greeted by a striking oak and glass staircase that sets the tone for the grandeur within. The ground floor unveils a high-spec kitchen seamlessly integrated with a living dining area, complete with bi-folding doors that lead to the rear decking area, blurring the lines between indoor and outdoor living. Additional features on this level include a separate utility room, a spacious living room, a versatile study, a shower room suite, and a store room. Underfloor heating throughout the ground floor ensures a cosy atmosphere during the colder months. Ascending to the first floor, a luxurious master suite awaits, complete with a shower room en-suite and a dressing room. Four more bedrooms on this level are serviced by a shower room en-suite in the second bedroom, and a family bathroom offering both style and functionality. Outside, the property boasts a large driveway with a detached car-port, providing ample parking space, a generously sized garden featuring a decked area and steps leading down to a sprawling lawn, creating a serene outdoor haven.
