Location

Carron Lodge is situated in the picturesque hamlet of Carron on the banks of the River Spey and is four miles west of Aberlour. The Speyside region is of course synonymous with malt whisky where Dailuaine Distillery can be found on the road leading to the Lodge and Dalmunach Distillery as you leave. Aberlour offers many facilities including food stores, a pharmacy, butcher, post office, swimming pool and gym. Primary schools can be found in Aberlour and nearby Knockando, with a secondary school in Aberlour. The town of Elgin lies approximately 20 miles to the north where a more comprehensive range of amenities can be found. There is a regular bus service to nearby towns, with train stations in both Keith and Elgin. From Knockando you reach a beautiful road leading into Forres (20 miles) and then on to Findhorn. The Cities of Inverness to the West and Aberdeen to the East are just over an hour away and offer further major facilities, together with national rail links and airports.
