ORLANDO REID
— MANCHESTER —

Ancoats has rapidly become one of the most sought-after areas to live in Manchester city centre. It's particularly popular with creatives and professionals, especially those working for the BBC and ITV, thanks to the short commute to their offices. Living here means you'll be in the heart of a vibrant neighbourhood known for its eclectic mix of trendy bars, award-winning restaurants, and a thriving cultural scene.

Step into this ultra-stylish two-bedroom apartment and be immediately impressed by its spacious layout and abundance of natural light. The property features two generously-sized double bedrooms, each providing plenty of space to unwind. The modern bathroom is sleek and well-appointed, adding to the overall luxury feel of the apartment. The kitchen is designed with modern living in mind, boasting high-end finishes and all the appliances you need to cater to your culinary ambitions. Whether you enjoy cooking up a storm or simply prefer a sleek, functional space, this kitchen delivers on both style and practicality.
