A sunning, recently-converted apartment within a 19th century Mill in Stockport. A premium living space filled with historic industrial character, boosted by excellent connectivity and nearby hotspots.

The development includes 173 parking spaces and secure bicycle storage, all conveniently close to Stockport's town centre. The mill's original features are prominently displayed, transporting residents back in time as soon as they enter. Exposed brickwork, steel beams, and large windows will be highlighted throughout the interior.
