A beautifully presented and recently renovated Edwardian semi detached house, situated in this desirable area of Summersdale with two/three bedrooms and a double garage.

Entrance hall | Sitting room/Bedroom three | Kitchen | Lounge/Dining room | Utility room | WC | Two first floor bedrooms | Study | Bathroom | Gas central heating | South facing rear garden | Double garage

Location

The property stands in this very popular position in Summersdale, just to the north of Chichester. There is a convenience store within walking distance and plenty of further facilities in Chichester including shops, restaurants, Pallant House Gallery, Chichester Festival Theatre as well as a mainline railway station with services to London Victoria. Chichester is ideally placed for access to both the coast, with sandy beaches around the Witterings and to the open countryside around the Downs with sporting and other events at Goodwood.
