Description

Five self-contained flats and a commercial unit situated within a mixed used building producing a total income of approx. £98,300 per annum. 9 flats within the block have been sold on long leaseholds and each produce a ground rent of £300 pa.

The commercial unit is arranged on the lower ground floor and comprises an open plan office area with kitchenette and bathroom with a separately accessed office and store over the communal hallway. The unit benefits from a roof light to the main space with no natural light to the separately accessed meeting room or store. The flats are broadly arranged as 4 x one beds and 1 x two bed with the lower ground floor flats 2 & 3 having small terrace areas with the remaining ground floor flats not benefitting from any outside space. The property has a gated car park with space for 6 cars.

Location

The property is situated on the corner of Spurstowe Terrace and Dalston Lane and conveniently next door to Hackney Downs train station which provides London Overground and Greater Anglia line services. The surrounding area is a mix of residential flats and period housing with a Tesco Express neighbouring the property and secondary retail parades at the junction of Dalston Lane and Amhurst Road.

Terms

The freehold is available to purchase, subject to an asking price of £2,200,000. All other terms and conditions by negotiation.

Planning

Planning permission for the erection of a 2-storey extension to provide 6 residential units was recently refused by Hackney Council (ref no. 2021/0150). However, we have been advised that Hackney Council are in favour of 2 residential units on 1 floor being developed, subject to planning.
