Nestled in the picturesque village of Salford Priors, this beautiful Grade II listed 17th-century thatched cottage is brimming with period charm and a wealth of original character features. Immaculately presented throughout, this enchanting home seamlessly blends traditional elegance with modern comforts.

The inviting lounge/dining room, located at the front of the property, boasts dual-aspect windows, exposed beams, and a stunning inglenook fireplace with a log burner, creating a warm and spacious living area. With stairs leading to the first floor and a door leads through to the hallway. The well-appointed kitchen is fitted with ample wall and base units, offering a pleasant outlook over the generous rear garden. The recently refitted bathroom is finished to a high standard, featuring a bath with shower over, stylish tiling, a chrome towel radiator, and underfloor heating for added luxury.

Upstairs, the landing leads to two comfortable double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom enjoying a front aspect and fitted wardrobes. The loft is fully boarded with drop-down ladders, providing additional storage space.

Outside, the property benefits from a large, beautifully maintained rear garden, laid mainly to lawn with mature trees, stocked borders, and private patio/entertaining areas. High hedges provide a good level of privacy, while at the end of the garden, a brick-built store, shed, and summer house offer fantastic additional space. The private driveway accommodates up to three vehicles.

This charming cottage is truly ready to move into, further benefiting from gas central heating and double-glazed windows. Viewing is essential to fully appreciate all this stunning home has to offer.
