DESCRIPTION

The site comprises a mainly level area which is currently utilised for industrial and storage of machinery/plant.

The surrounding area is a mix of woodland and open countryside with the site originally forming part of the historic Shibden Hall Estate.

The site offers a rare opportunity to acquire a Green Belt gated development opportunity of circa 2 hectares in a very desirable location.

Planning for residential development has been obtained (see "planning") but alternative schemes could be considered subject to planning.

PLANNING

The site benefits from planning permission 15/01689/FUL for 14 dwellings with generous gardens (decision issue date 29/03/2019).

Full planning and supporting documentation is available on the Calderdale Planning Portal (www.calderdale.gov.uk).
