Manor House 64 High Street

Wickham Market, Woodbridge, IP13 0QU

Guide price £525,000

Description

A fine listed Grade 2 star Manor House dating from the early 16th Century, retaining many fine timbers typically associated with its period with particular note are two Crown posts, jettied front and quality of the timbers. The sitting room still retains an 18th century corner cabinet. The property has a central hallway with receptions to either side. Beyond is the kitchen and parlour adjacent. There are two staircases at each end of the house with the bedrooms and bathroom all accessed off the main landing. The walled garden is a real asset to the property and as private vehicular access to it.

Location

The property is situated in the village centre and within walking distance of all the villages' superb amenities. including independent shops, butchers, newsagent, pharmacy hardware store, a large Co-op and Post office to name but a few. It also offers two take a ways, two tea rooms as well as a medical centre, vets and beauty salon and a number of business all close to the door stop. Being just off the A12 there is easy access to the Suffolk's Heritage coast and the riverside market town of Woodbridge, with its excellent facilities including shopping, restaurants, Woodbridge Golf club, sailing and rowing on the Deben and its own railway station to Ipswich and its mainline to London's Liverpool street.
