Set amidst lush greenery, Green Meadows exudes charm with its expansive lawns and flourishing plant borders, ideal for gardening enthusiasts. A rear gate opens to a public footpath, inviting exploration of the surrounding countryside and its myriad walking trails.

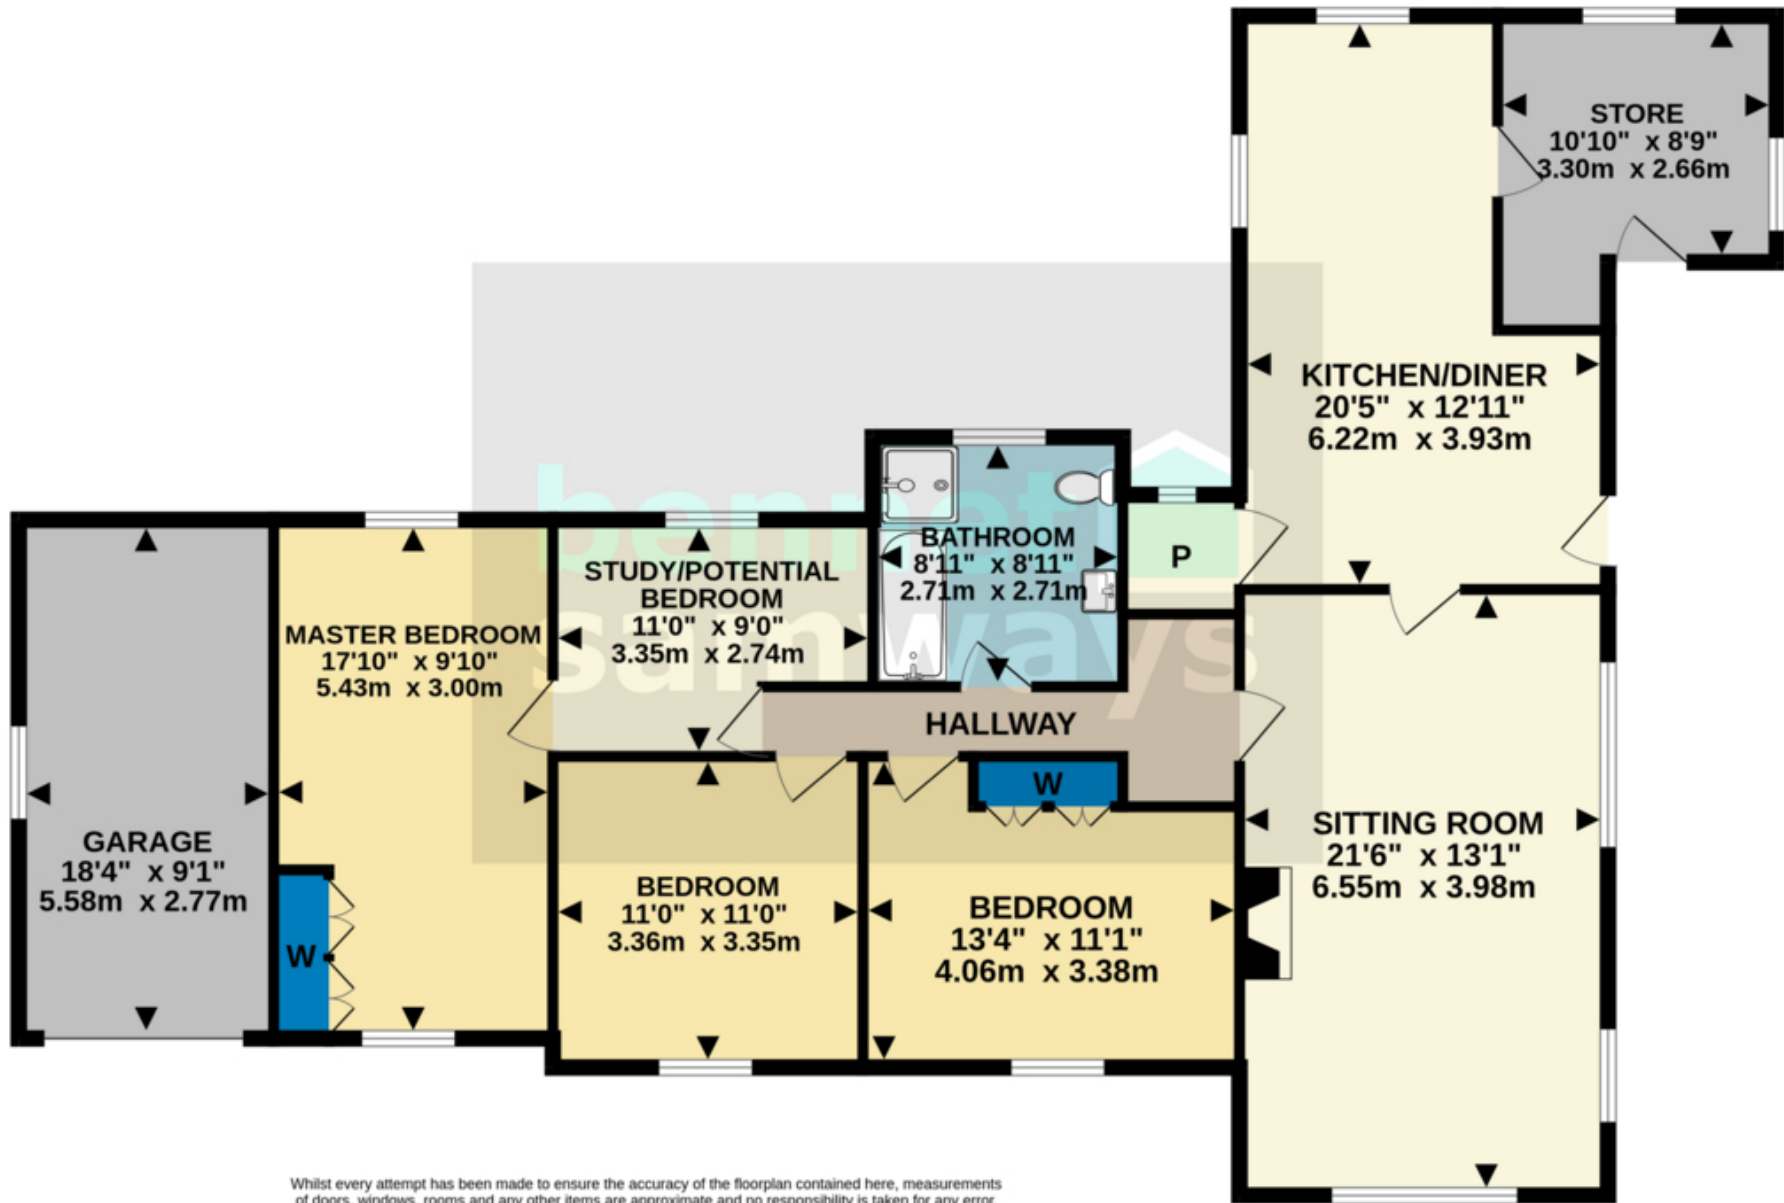

Locality - Nestled in the scenic Derbyshire Dales near the Peak District, Kniveton is a charming village situated just 3 miles from Ashbourne, 6 miles from Wirksworth, and 16 miles from Derby. Enriched with local amenities, Kniveton boasts the esteemed Kniveton C of E Primary School, and the Grade I listed church of St Michael and All Angels. The village hub is adorned by the welcoming 'The Red Lion' pub. One of Kniveton's key attractions is its close proximity to both Carsington Water and the Peak District National Park, offering residents and visitors alike access to incredible walks and cycle routes, catering to the diverse interests of active families. Surrounded by the breathtaking countryside of the Derbyshire Dales, Kniveton presents an idyllic setting for a peaceful and enriching lifestyle.

Owner's perspective - "Our family has thoroughly enjoyed living at Green Meadows since it was built in the 1950's. We had a wonderful childhood here. For lovers of the countryside it is located on a fantastic network of little used but extensive public footpaths with stunning views. On foot it is less than a mile from the edge of the Peak District. The property itself has great views, with cattle and sheep grazing at the bottom of the garden. It has a good sized, well-established, low maintenance, south facing garden. The countryside here abounds with wildlife, and the garden is full of birdsong. The property is situated in a relatively quiet rural location just off the main road, 2 miles from the centre of Ashbourne and 1 mile from Kniveton village, school. Green Meadows is a great place for children, for dog owners, for working from home or for retirement."
