PROPERTY ONE

We are delighted to welcome this Charming and Traditional Three Bedrooomed Semi Detached Property, situated on the border of Edgeley and Cheadle. Oozing with Tradition and Charm, this property is perfectly situated for those requiring to be close to an array of amenities including large supermarkets, and within walking distance of reputable schools and convenient transport links.

The accommodation briefly comprises: Entrance into a Welcoming Hallway, with a Spacious Open-Plan Reception Room, with a beautifully traditional feature fireplace and bay window to the front. Beyond is a Capacious and Cottage-Style Kitchen, with an open-plan aspect to a breakfast area and another Feature Fireplace, with a breakfast bar separating the two. To the rear is a Well constructed Conservatory which currently being used as the dining room, with access through patio doors to a beautifully presented rear garden. The conservatory has been built on proper foundations, meaning should the new owner wish to extend with a brick-built extension, they have the foundations there to do it. Stairs lead from the hallway down to an Extremely Large Basement Cellar, housing a brand new boiler and both chambers provide valuable additional storage space. To the First Floor Landing you'll find Three Good-Sized Bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, and a Traditional Shower Room with modern WC. There is also a large loft space providing Valuable and Additional Storage space - a perfect solution for a small or growing family!

Externally, there is Off-Road Parking via a tiled driveway and car port to the side - large enough for several vehicles, with a low-walled and gated garden to the front. To the rear, the property boasts an Extremely Large and Picturesque Garden, consisting of a Pond, decorative rockery, decorative bridge, and a Large Shed at the bottom providing further storage space. The property is EPC Grade- E, and Council Tax Band- B. Freehold.
