Spanning approximately 441 sq ft, the apartment features a bright, south-facing living area measuring 21', perfectly positioned to capture natural light throughout the day. A cleverly designed mezzanine sleeping area adds both charm and practicality, providing a clear separation between living and sleeping spaces.

The modern kitchen and contemporary bathroom/WC are well appointed, while the property's high ceilings enhance the sense of space and airiness, creating a comfortable and inviting atmosphere.

Located within the Willett Estate Conservation Area, this property blends period character with modern living. Hove Station is just a short distance away, ensuring excellent transport connections for commuters, while the surrounding neighbourhood offers a fantastic range of cafés, shops, and amenities.

Ideal for first-time buyers or investors, this leasehold property represents an affordable opportunity to own a piece of Hove's architectural heritage in a highly desirable setting.
