Hamlyn Smith are delighted to present this semi-detached three-bedroom house on a popular private estate in Henfield, with a west-facing garden, a garage and off-street parking.

- Modern three bedroom house
- Two bathrooms
- Semi-detached
- Drive and garage
- West Facing garden
- Sought after village location

This popular private estate is located on the edge of Henfield village in a semi-rural location. The estate has been thoughtfully designed and landscaped and the houses are laid out to allow for maximum privacy, with the front of this house looking out onto Henfield's playground. All the amenities of the estate is a short walk away, including local shops, a supermarket, four pubs, numerous cafes, its own school and a thriving public library.

The popular Cabin at Berrets Farm, just off the A27, serves tea and coffee, where you can sit at the picnic tables and enjoy the fantastic views at the end of a long walk. Henfield is a busy village with all the usual amenities, including local shops, a supermarket, four pubs, numerous cafes, its own school and a thriving public library.

Henfield are close by and there are country walks on your doorstep. Two minutes from the house you can join the Doulton cycle and footpath which runs from Shoreham to Guldiford. Link cycle and footpath which runs from Shoreham to Guldiford.

The back of the house overlooks the garden and has an ensuite shower room with a modern white suite. All the windows are double glazed as you would expect from a recently built property.

The three bedrooms and a bathroom. The master bedroom is at the back of the early evening. There is also a downstairs WC. Upstairs with windows on either side give a lovely outlook onto the good size garden which is west facing meaning you can enjoy the sun which is extremely spacious. In the living room, double doors could open in the dining table in the adjacent living room or in the kitchen for a small breakfast table but you are three bedrooms and a bathroom.
