SHARE OF FREEHOLD WITH TWO PARKING SPACES Greenhill Estates is proud to showcase a stunning Georgian Grade II listed penthouse apartment, impeccably preserved by its current owners. This top-floor gem is nestled within a historic edifice in the quaint market town of Buntingford. The apartment exudes timeless charm, seamlessly integrating classic architectural elements such as exposed wooden beams, brick accents, and traditional sash windows which are complemented by contemporary plantation shutters. The bedroom is a testament to elegance with its striking fireplace, and the living spaces boast rich wooden flooring.

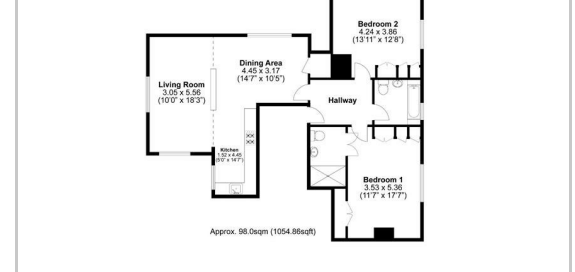

The interior of this unique apartment reveals a spacious open-plan living area, distinct dining space, and an elegant kitchen equipped with high end integrated appliances and generous storage solutions. The two sizable bedrooms feature custom built in wardrobes, with the master bedroom benefiting from an opulent en-suite shower room complete with vanity storage. The master which includes tailored wardrobe solutions as well as additional storage to accommodate shoes or other items, enhancing the functionality of the space. For even more storage, there is a convenient loft area.

Outside, residents can take advantage of two dedicated parking spots within a secure area and a shared garden space for relaxation and social gatherings. The Red House, a building of significant historical importance dating back to around 1710 and distinguished by its blue plaque recognition, offers not only a sense of pride in ownership but also an intimate living experience. Only four apartments share the secure entry system, ensuring privacy. The building's communal areas reflect a harmonious blend of historical allure and modern appeal, thanks to the meticulous care provided by the current owners.
