£1,050,000

For Sale is this Grade 2 listed Cottage set within this red brick building with corbelled porches, tiled roofs, Tudor style arched doorways and the Gothic style tower standing proudly above the doorway. Part of the Queen's Park Estate this property was originally built for the Railway workers and labourers in the area. Now a sought after road this carefully presented home is full of outstanding period features complemented by beautifully muted and toned colours.

Accommodation totals 1055 sq ft and consists of two reception rooms both with working gas fireplaces, two bedrooms, bathroom and a kitchen with carefully crafted fitted cabinets, fitted appliances and an abundance of light flooding through the side return extension and double doors onto the rear garden. There is underfloor heating throughout the Ground Floor. On the First Floor there is an elegant bedroom with fitted wardrobes, high ceilings, sash window and a wood burner. The second bedroom has subtle tones, wood flooring and two windows. The family bathroom has a contemporary feel with a wet area, large square tub and basin.

Externally, there is a partially decked rear garden area with a wall mural and lateral style fencing making a peaceful pocket handkerchief' garden ideal for enjoying your breakfast or an evening glass of wine.

Tastefully and stylishly decorated throughout the property provides a tranquil, classic home to live in.

Transport connections are good into Central London via Kensal Green (Overground & Bakerloo) and Queen's Park along with regular direct bus routes.
