Offers in Excess of £1,170,000

Situated within the outstanding North York Moors National Park, can be found this delightful Grade II listed period residence with a holiday cottage known as Paddy Waddell's Rest, perched up over-looking the salmon fishing river of the River Esk (including fishing rights on an approx 300 metre stretch).

Courtyard with generous parking plus a range of traditional stone outbuildings offering scope for development subject to appropriate consents, plus further outbuildings, including stabling and barns which could appeal for applicants looking to run a home business, all these facets add to the possibilities and enjoyment to this country residence. The extent of the estate is in the region of 6.4 acres with approx 5.1 acres down to grass.

Ground floor accommodation to Rake House: Entrance hall, cloakroom, kitchen/breakfast area, pantry, dining room, sitting room, utility room and home office.

First floor: Landing, three bedrooms, house bathroom with separate shower.

Second floor: Loft room.

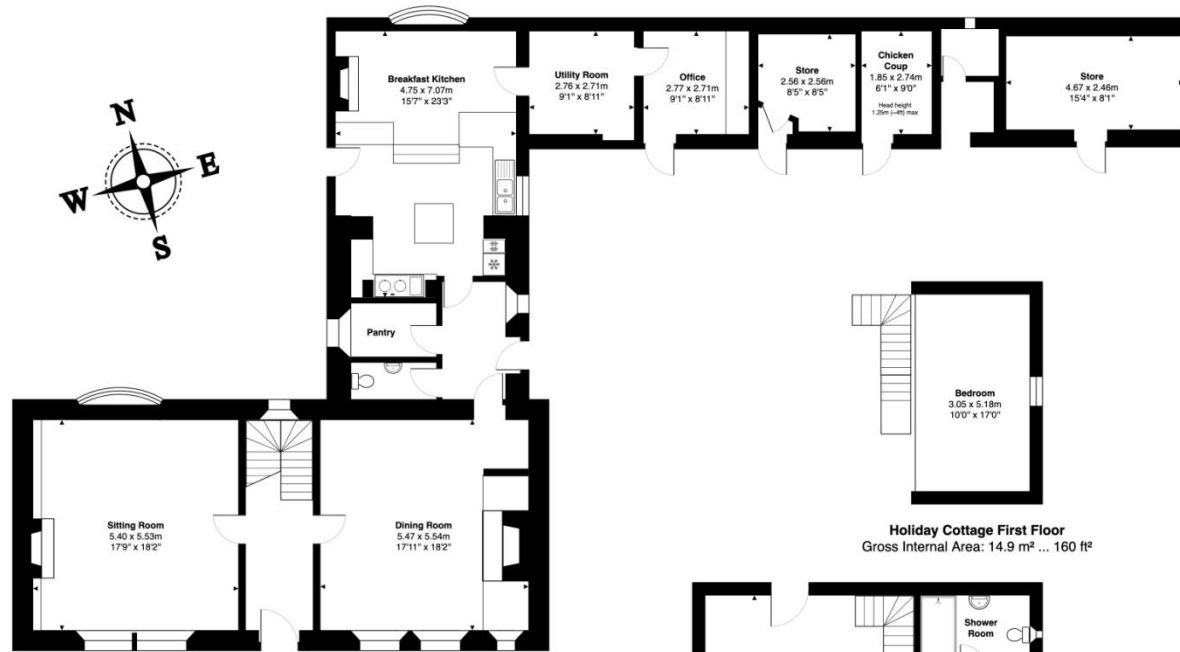

Paddy Waddell's Rest: Ground floor: Open plan sitting room/kitchen and separate shower.

First floor: Bedroom

The ancient city of York and the coastal resorts of Whitby, Robin Hoods Bay and Staithes are easily commutable as are the ancient market towns of Pickering, Helmsley, Kirkbymoorside and Malton. The North York Moors Railway, the North York Moors National Park and the Great Dalby Forest offer great attractions for visitors to the area.
