A well presented, three bedroom home, a short walk from open countryside and walks along the North Bucks Way. This superb home has versatile living space over the three floors that has worked well for the current owners. Comprising entrance hall with downstairs WC, sitting room, kitchen/dining room, first floor with two bedrooms, bathroom and the second floor having the master suite with built in double wardrobes and en suite. The private, south westerly facing rear garden is low maintenance and has a good degree of privacy. In addition to the house, the garage is currently set up as a gym and has an upgraded security door. Off road parking for two/three cars and an EV charger point.
