Bedford Court Mansions. Elegant Two Bedroom Second Floor Mansion Flat with Share Of Freehold, Porter and access to the private Bedford Square Garden.

Tucked away on a beautiful, tree lined street, Bedford Court Mansions is one of Bloomsbury's most sought after Victorian red brick buildings. It offers a well managed, portered building, meaning everything is beautifully maintained, offering you security and peace of mind.

This home has been modernised throughout to a high standard, and is ready for you to move straight in. Once inside you will immediately appreciate the period charm combined with modern comfort, particularly the high ceilings and large sash windows which enhance the feeling of light and space.

The main living area features a semi open plan living room with bespoke shelving that flows into a modern kitchen with integrated appliances, ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. The accommodation includes a generous primary bedroom, a versatile second double bedroom (perfect for a home office, dressing room, or guest space), and a modern bathroom.

Living here means you are right on the borders of Fitzrovia, Covent Garden, and Soho, giving you instant access to London's finest restaurants, theatres, and shops.
