The home blends old and new with effortless style, flowing seamlessly between the kitchen, dining, and family living areas. Bi-fold doors open onto the rear garden with tranquil canalside views, and internally onto a central courtyard. The impressive vaulted living room, once a hay barn, retains its original wooden beams and features a striking fireplace with a cosy log burner. A beautifully crafted oak mezzanine balcony overlooks this remarkable space. The barn offers four generously sized ensuite bedrooms, each with its own character. Designed with versatility and practicality in mind, the property includes a study, utility room, garage, and plant room. Externally, there is ample parking, a large patio area, and a grassy lawn down to the water's edge.

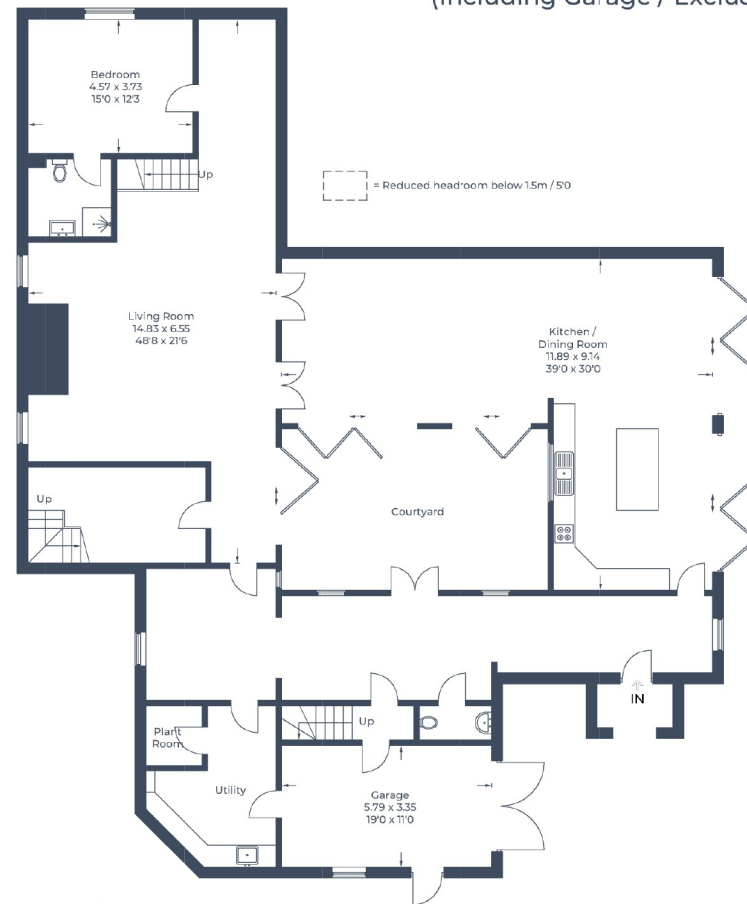

Rickmansworth's strategic location ensures seamless access to London, with excellent fast rail links (Chiltern Line to Marylebone) and road connections (M25 Junction 18 close by and M1 within easy reach). This makes it an attractive and efficient commuter town for those seeking a balance between urban and rural life. A fantastic choice of both state and private schooling options are available locally.
