Foxglove Cottage, Little London, Oakhill, Radstock, BA3 5AU

Nestled in the charming village of Oakhill, Somerset, lies Foxglove Cottage, a 19th-century end-terraced gem steeped in history. Originally thought to have been a worker's cottage for a local brewery, this quaint residence exudes character with flagstone floors, ornate wooden doors, exposed ceiling beams, and cosy fireplaces. The ground floor welcomes you with a warm living room featuring a log burner, a dining room, well-equipped kitchen, and potential WC conversion area. Upstairs unveils a beautifully spacious landing with an integrated study, leading to two generous double bedrooms boasting garden views. Outside, a delightful country cottage-style front garden with a south-facing patio and mature fruit trees complements the courtyard at the rear, complete with high walls and a handy storage shed. Situated on a serene street near the vibrant hubs of Shepton Mallet and Midsomer Norton, Oakhill offers a peaceful escape with its scenic surroundings and rich community life.
