Quote Reference NF0664 To View

A well cared for Detached House, dating back to 1999. Tucked away towards the end of the cul-de-sac with a stunning back drop onto a meadow and woodland. Foraging deer, owls hooting and beautiful sunsets are gifts on offer with this property. Seldom available on this side of the road with this back drop.

The property has a flexible layout, of four or five bedrooms depending on your needs. The owners have enhanced the property and the gardens surrounding to create a great home they have enjoyed since it was built. Now its their time to down size you can take over if this home resonates with you when viewed.

Located in High Littleton village, close to Greyfield woods and the High Street. You are a mere 30 minutes from Bath and Bristol as well as Bristol Airport. The village is highly regarded and has a great Primary school and well renowned long standing fish and chip shop amongst other amenities.
