Ref: MK0967. This detached character cottage is situated in a pleasant village location, in the shadow of Carn Brea Castle and a short distance from Redruth town centre. Character features including Inglenook fireplace with multi fuel burner and beamed ceilings. The property was originally the old forge for the nearby farmhouse and previously laid out as a three bed so is deceptively spacious. Accommodation currently comprises fitted kitchen, lounge, and separate dining room on the ground floor with large bathroom and bedroom on the first floor. The property is double glazed throughout and benefits from night storage heating. Externally there is a good sized, level garden with countryside views to the West.
