Well presented four/five bedroomed detached family home in a very sought after, semi-rural location near to Bewdley. Recently redecorated throughout and with new bathrooms fitted. On-going garden project with swimming pool, gazebo / covered decking area and plans for detached annexe. A beautiful home close to Wyre Forest and with some fantastic features including countryside views, a spacious modern interior and an excellent finish throughout. The garden of around half an acre surrounds the property with new decked patio, lawns and parking areas. To the front of the property is a large gated parking driveway area with further driveway leading around the property. Oil fired central heating and double glazed throughout. This property offers an incredible opportunity and would make a beautiful family home for anyone.
