Tamarisk, Thorganby

Offers Over £1,000,000

5 4 3

Nestled in the picturesque village of Thorganby, just eight miles from York, this architect-designed five bedroom home offers the perfect blend of countryside charm and modern luxury. Set behind electric gates on a generous plot, the property has been thoughtfully extended to a high standard, featuring a stunning open-plan kitchen-living space with granite worktops, AEG appliances, and bi-fold doors opening to a southwest-facing garden. The ground floor includes multiple living areas, a dedicated office, utility room, and elegant features such as a bespoke oak staircase and log burner. Upstairs, five double bedrooms—three with en-suites— are complemented by a luxurious family bathroom with freestanding copper bath and designer finishes. Externally, the home boasts a double garage, expansive driveway, outdoor kitchen, and beautifully landscaped garden with a separate vegetable plot and a fully powered, Wi-Fi-enabled summer house. With underfloor heating, handmade Accoya windows, and high-quality craftsmanship throughout, this home combines comfort, character, and practicality. Situated in a conservation area with a vibrant community, excellent school catchment, and easy access to York, Selby, and surrounding countryside, this exceptional home offers a rare lifestyle opportunity in a truly idyllic setting
