Located in a quite cul de sac and offering versatile accommodation, this substantial detached bungalow is presented in good order throughout.

Aldwick offers a range of local amenities, including shops, pubs, and restaurants, as well as several churches, a primary school and a community centre. To the north, you can find the Cathedral city of Chichester which boasts a comprehensive shopping centre as well as The Festival Theatre. There is also The Goodwood Estate, which hosts the infamous Festival Of Speed and Revival Meetings as well as horse racing and golf courses.

Entering through the front door into the spacious hallway the accommodation is split with the bedrooms on the right hand side and the living spaces to the rear of the bungalow. The bedroom accommodation comprises: two smaller double bedrooms, one having a double built in wardrobe cupboard and further along the hallway the two larger double bedrooms that overlook the front garden. The master bedroom benefits from a duel aspect and a generous sized en-suite bathroom, with a double basin vanity unit, separate bath and shower cubicle. Heading back towards the rear of the property is the modern family shower room.

The kitchen is a generous size and benefits from a built in double oven and a peninsular breakfast bar. There is a range of base and eye level units providing plenty of storage with space for white goods too. A double glazed door gives access to the side garden space.

To the rear of the property is the spacious lounge/dining room with bi-fold doors leading into the conservatory that overlooks the rear garden. Off the conservatory is the one bedroom studio annex, with a kitchenette, shower room and lounge with patio doors.

The rear garden is a particular feature of this property having a favourable southerly aspect. It is laid mainly to lawn with mature shrub borders and two paved patio areas. To the front of the property is a lawn area and a generous driveway providing off road parking for several cars.
