This exquisite two-bedroom apartment is ideally located just off the desirable King's Road in Chelsea, offering a perfect blend of historical charm and modern living. Set within a handsome Victorian red-brick building, this property benefits from a split-level layout that provides a wonderful sense of space and privacy, and is only a short walk from the boutique shops, cafes, and restaurants that make this area one of London's most sought-after locations.

Internally, the property boasts a well-balanced design with generously proportioned rooms. The highlight is the impressive 34-foot deep double-reception room, located on the raised ground floor, which features two elegant gas fireplaces and intricate ceiling mouldings. This grand space is ideal for entertaining, offering excellent volume and beautiful detailing throughout. The split-level design separates the living and sleeping areas, ensuring a functional and private layout.

Externally, the property features a charming west-facing garden, perfect for relaxing or hosting outdoor gatherings. This private garden offers a tranquil retreat in the heart of Chelsea. The Victorian architecture of the building adds character to the property while maintaining a sense of modern comfort.

Located just off King's Road, this home enjoys prime access to Chelsea's vibrant atmosphere, with Sloane Square and South Kensington underground stations only a short walk away, providing excellent transport links. Additionally, Battersea Park is easily accessible across the river, offering vast green spaces and recreational opportunities. This is a truly remarkable property in an unrivalled location.
