Property Information

Yvonne Fitzgerald is delighted to bring to the market this quaint stone cottage which is full of character and charm in a secluded rural location. This wonderful period home is mainly neutrally decorated through out and benefits from a spacious lounge with Caithness Flagstone flooring, an exposed stone wall and a cosy multi fuel stove. The kitchen is of good proportions and has a Belfast sink with a freestanding cooker as well as an undercounter fridge and a useful breakfast bar with wooden original floorboards. Double glazed doors lead from the kitchen to the decking area of the rear garden. Located off the kitchen is the family bathroom which also boasts solid wooden flooring. The bedroom is of good proportions and features a tiled and wooden fireplace with an enclosed coal fire and built in wardrobe. Upstairs is an attic bedroom which could also be used as a second sitting room.

Situated in an elevated position with parking to the rear, this property has outstanding views over the North Sea as well as an area of lawn and decking which is ideal for entertaining and breakfasting in during the summer months as it is very private.

Kirtomy is approximately four miles from the nearest village of Bettyhill which has a hotel, cafe and swimming pool. It is within a thirty mile car journey to Thurso where further facilities such as supermarkets, a cinema and gym can be found and also offers a good selection of amenities. Thurso is the most Northerly town in Scotland and benefits from having good coach and rail links South. There is an airport and hospital in Wick which is a further twenty miles from Thurso.
