South Street

Crowland, Peterborough, PE6 0AJ

Nestled in the charming Lincolnshire market town of Crowland, Peterborough, this delightful detached house on South Street offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. With over 1100 square feet of versatile accommodation, this property is ideal for families or those seeking extra space.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious entrance hall that sets the tone for the rest of the home. The ground floor features two reception rooms, including a former garage transformed into a dining room or family room, providing ample space for entertaining or relaxing. The well-appointed living room and dining area flow seamlessly into a bright conservatory at the rear, creating a lovely space to enjoy the garden views. A good sized kitchen with a separate utility room and a convenient downstairs VWC enhance the practicality of this home. Upstairs, you will find a four-piece family bathroom and three well-proportioned bedrooms, including two doubles and a single, ensuring plenty of room for family or guests. The property benefits from gas central heating and uPVC double glazing, ensuring warmth and energy efficiency throughout. Outside, the well-maintained garden and patio area offer a tranquil retreat, perfect for outdoor gatherings or quiet evenings. A timber shed provides additional storage, while gated side access leads to the front of the property. The property is being sold with no forward chain. Located just a two-minute walk from the local health centre and close to the historic Crowland Abbey, this home is ideally situated for easy access to shops, services, and amenities. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the charm and potential of this wonderful property.
