Fell Lane Farm

Hoylandswaine, Sheffield

A unique opportunity to purchase this lovely period farmhouse located in a fabulous position with large garden and open aspect over neighbouring fields. The property is approximately 6 minutes drive from the M1 (junction 37), giving good access to Sheffield, Wakefield and Leeds. A bus stop at the end of the drive is convenient for buses to Penistone and Wakefield schools. This individual farmhouse has origins believed to be earlier than the 1850s and has been considerably extended and updated. The property is set back from Barnsley Road down a private drive and sits within approximately one and a half acres of land. There is a paddock to the front and beautiful formal gardens to the rear which enjoy extensive views over the neighbouring countryside. There is a driveway for numerous vehicles and turning area leading to an integral double garage. There are several impressive period outbuildings to the rear including a stone barn, mistle and red brick piggery. A truly one-of-a-kind property occupying this superb yet little known position, well placed for local amenities.
