Hartland Village brings St Edward's undisputed quality to a superb location in Fleet, Hampshire. With the beautiful semi-rural setting as a backdrop, and a sense of arrival as you cross the bridge over the lake at the entrance. Fleet train Station is just a short drive from Hartland Village providing excellent commuting links into London in just over 40-minutes. Farnborough Main Station is only a little further away with a shuttle bus travelling directly to the station and trains running from here to London Waterloo in 35 minutes!

The village centre will be the hub of Hartland Village, the location for a range of services and shops, as well as being the focus of local life. The attractively landscaped paved area will have outdoor seating. It will be a place where you can meet friends and neighbours, do some shopping and join community events. The Village Centre will have over 25,000 sq. ft. of indoor space, so will have the potential to accommodate all the everyday facilities, healthcare, fitness and wellbeing, and local shops offering those everyday necessities. As Hartland Village evolves, it will provide all the amenities and features that animate a development and turn it into a community.

Fleet which is only a 10 minute drive away has a community feel with many local events organised by its local committee including its food festival, Saturday market, carnival, fireworks, and many sports events. Fleet high street boasts an array of bars, restaurants and shops including the Hart shopping centre. Hart leisure centre is also an excellent feature of Fleet, offering a wide range of facilities and home to many local sports and clubs. Well positioned for access to the M3 and other major road links, along with its mainline station providing fantastic rail links to Waterloo, Basingstoke, and Southampton.
