Offered to the market with no onward chain is this large 4-bedroom detached bungalow.

As you enter the property, you are greeted by a large entrance hall with shower room immediately to the left-hand side. Welcoming you directly ahead as you enter the front door are both the kitchen, and dining room. With the dining room providing access through to Bedroom 4, which could also be purposed as a study, featuring built-in wardrobes. To the front aspect of the property, you are greeted by Bedrooms 1, 2 and 3, all benefitting from built-in wardrobes and large windows providing a light airy space, and a spacious family bathroom. To the rear of the property, you will find the 19ft reception room with sliding doors leading into the family room. The family room benefits from dual aspect sliding doors into the garden, flooding both the family room and reception room with natural light.

To the outside the property is approached by a large driveway with ample parking along with a dual length garage. The property benefits from an East-facing front garden getting the morning sun, and a West-facing rear garden capturing the afternoon and evening sun. With a plot size of 0.22 acres, there is ample outside space to enjoy the sunlight and entertain family and friends.

Located on a quiet road within walking distance of Ash Ranges nature reserve provides a rural setting still within easy reach of The Swan Pub and local shops.

Easy access to Ash station and the A331 makes this home perfectly suited for easy commuting routes to London.

Waterfords are delighted to represent this lovely family home, and viewings are highly recommended to truly appreciate the potential of the home and beautiful surrounding areas.
