The property provides outstanding and flexible living accommodation thoughtfully extended in more recent years.

From the Entrance hall you can access all the downstairs reception rooms as well as a staircase to the first floor and a refitted Downstairs Cloakroom. Immediately to your right as you step into this lovely home is an extremely spacious Study with built in cupboards and a light front aspect.

The Living Room and Dining Room occupy the side aspect to your left, the living room with Front aspect and feature fireplace and double doors through to a rear aspect Dining room with patio doors to outside and a secluded seating area.

The Kitchen breakfast room/Family Room is a real feature extending to 24ft and having been updated with modern units and appliances with a return breakfast bar with central Gas hob and ceiling extractor, opening out in to the Breakfast area/Family room.

Access to the rear garden can also be obtained from the Breakfast Room.

To the First Floor approached by a landing area full of light from a side aspect landing window and door to the Family Bathroom and all First Floor rooms. The Master suite has a plethora of built in wardrobes with access to a recently refitted En Suite Shower Room. The remaining rooms are all of a good size with every room enjoying built in wardrobes.

The front of the property has ample parking for 3/4 vehicles and provides access through to a Tandem length Garage.

The Rear Garden needs to be viewed to be really appreciated providing extensive seclusion and a sunny aspect. From the mainly lawned area there is an adjoining brick paved pathway to one side and steps up to a paved patio area immediately adjacent to the Breakfast/Family Room. To outside the outside also enjoys a decked seating area ideal for taking in those long summer nights.

A timber constructed garden room/office can easily be adapted to suit any requirements and there is a personal door from the garden accessing the Garage.

Situated in popular residential location of Church Crookham within the catchment for outstanding local schooling, pubs and a variety of recreational facilities.
