ABOUT THE PROPERTY

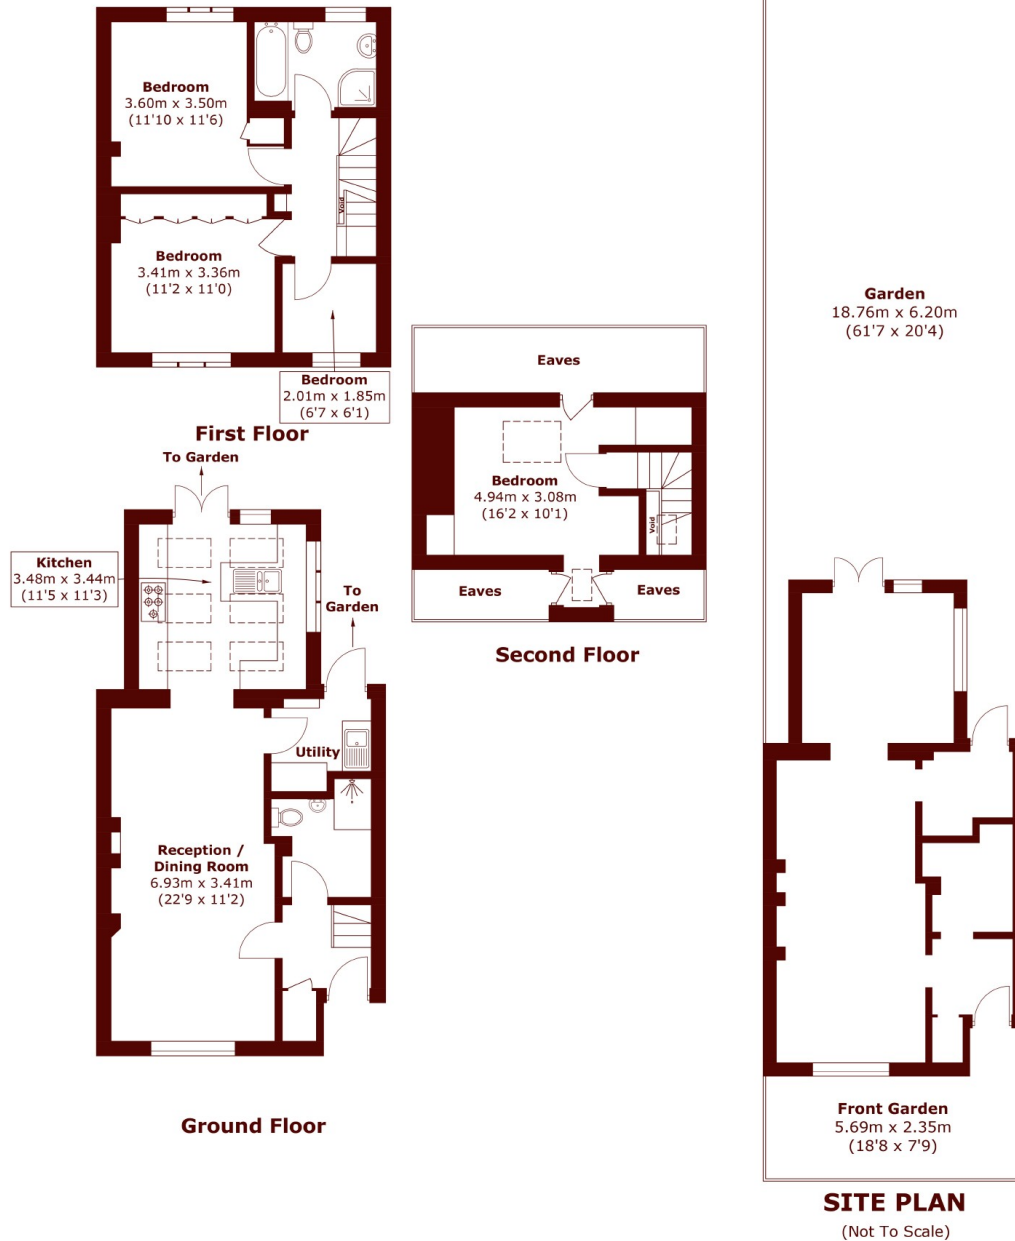

Marsh & Parsons are excited to bring to the market this four-bedroom terraced house which benefits from an incredible and sizable south west facing garden. Well-presented, light, bright, airy and quietly tucked away off a small green on Washington Road.

On the ground floor you're welcomed into a double reception room which extends further through a modern kitchen and garden beyond. A vaulted ceiling allows for plenty of natural light whilst a handy utility room and ground floor shower room add to the homes practicality. On the first floor, there are two double bedrooms as well as another further bedroom on the top floor with plenty of eaves storage space.

Washington Road is a quiet residential street with favourite nearby amenities including Thames riverside only a short walk away and an array of cozy pubs, cafes and restaurants which add a sense of that famous Barnes community.

A prospective buyer can enjoy plenty of transport links including excellent bus routes, Hammersmith Underground (Piccadilly, District, Circle, Hammersmith & City Lines) and Barnes Bridge & Barnes Overground.
