ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A beautifully presented one-bedroom apartment situated in prime central Richmond. This beautifully presented one-bedroom flat comes to the market boasting wooden floors throughout. Situated in a modern development in a quiet road behind Richmond Green, this first floor flat is spacious and secure. The flat comprises of a large open-plan reception room with adjoining fully fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, one large double bedroom with ample built-in storage and a contemporary bathroom.

The flat is located within close proximity of Richmond station, providing fast direct mainline links into London Waterloo and direct underground links into London Victoria. Richmond is home to the largest royal park in London, Kew Gardens and Richmond Green; once the venue for jousting and archery events and home to Richmond Palace. There are a plethora of bars, pubs and restaurants along Richmond's pretty riverfront, high street and cobbled side streets with an array of boutique shops and eateries. Steeped in Royal history, Richmond upon Thames also boasts two theatres, three cinemas, the Ivy Café and the wonderful boutique Bingham Hotel.
