Description

An attractive brick fronted Victorian semi-detached residence situated on this popular North Kingston Road. This charming home boasts plenty of character, period features, high ceilings, large windows and glass doors which let in plenty of natural light, lovely wooden floors and an open layout throughout the ground floor, perfect for modern day family living. There is huge scope to expand the property on both the ground floor and into the loft (subject to necessary consents) which would create a substantial four bedroom family home measuring approximately 1500sqft.

The ground floor provides a cozy front lounge with log burning fire and bay window, middle reception room with storage under the stairs and a glass paneled door out to the courtyard section of the garden, spacious galley kitchen and a rear dining room which opens onto the delightfully landscaped rear garden measuring 45ft containing a large summer house with WC and storage shed. The first floor offers a double bedroom to the front with built-in wardrobes, a family bathroom and two additional bedrooms.

Situation

Shortlands Road is a particularly sought after road in popular North Kingston moments from Richmond Park. The property is ideally situated for both Kingston and Norbiton stations giving direct access into Waterloo and the A3 which serves both London & the M25. Kingston town centre with its array of shops, restaurants and bars is a short distance away. The standard of schooling in the immediate area is excellent within the private and state sectors and the area has an extensive range of leisure facilities.
