Crabtree Lane, Bromsgrove

This freehold detached family home enjoys a rare and generous plot, substantially larger than is typical for the area, offering exceptional outdoor space, privacy, and exciting potential for extension (subject to planning permission).

Nestled in a well-established residential neighbourhood, the property is within easy walking distance of Sanders Park, local schools, and the town centre's wide range of amenities. It's also ideally located for commuters, with convenient access to Birmingham and the national motorway network.

With characterful interiors, PVC double glazing, gas-fired central heating, ample parking for up to six vehicles, and a standout garden that sets it apart from other homes nearby, this is a unique opportunity not to be missed
