For Sale Freehold £179,500

A lovely two bedroomed semi detached house offering well presented and deceptively spacious accommodation on the fringe of this well regarded area with lovely open rural views to both the front and rear.

With a gas fired central heating system and sealed unit double glazed windows, this attractively presented and thoughtfully modernised semi detached house is approached from the front into a well proportioned living room that takes full advantage of the views over the open farmland to the front. To the rear there is a spacious dining room with a feature fireplace housing a wood burning stove and a pair of French doors leading out to the back garden. Built onto the rear is a kitchen fitted with a good range of modern units with integrated appliances. To the first floor the main bedroom is of fine proportions with a spacious landing leading through to a second good sized bedroom as well as the refitted bathroom. Outside, the property has driveway parking passing a lawned garden with well stocked beds. Round to the rear there is a sheltered patio sitting area with a brick built storage shed, beyond which is a much larger garden, laid mainly to lawn with well stocked beds and borders and further views out to the rear.

The property is situated on the fringe of this popular residential area within easy reach of a good range of local shops, schools and recreational facilities. The nearby town of Normanton has its own railway station and ready access to the national motorway network.
