Description

The ground floor comprises spacious entrance hallway leading to the spacious sitting room, backing on to the garden. The large reception room has many stand out features, but the light generated from the south facing rear garden is something to be admired. The property boasts versatility, as it has had one garage converted already, and with one still in place, adds further space if required. Leading upstairs the full open landing adds such an open feel throughout the property with the landing leading to all four of the double bedrooms, as well as the master en-suite.
