Housed on the second floor, this two bedroom flat comes part furnished and would be absolutely perfect for a couple trading up for space, a couple of mates looking to move in together, or a single pringle looking to spread their wings. Large, frosted windows feature as the focal point to the reception room, providing an entrance to the paved private balcony and heaps of light to wash over all your collections of knick-knacks, whatnots, tchotchkes and what-have-you's happily stored upon the heaps of floating shelves you'll find in the enclaves. In the kitchen, you'll spot some strikingly unique inbuilt storage solutions, from the stainless steel drawers and floating countertops to the translucent cabinet doors and miniature spice rack, you'll have the perfect place for everything your heart desires. There's even a cheeky bit of windowsill for displaying your growing array of keyring sized sriracha's, miniature set of Henry Hoovers, or your classic-but-classy cacti collection. Original wooden flooring greets you in both bedrooms, complete with calming beachy hues in the neutral décor and chunky floating shelves. The bathroom shows off a boutique-style design with
