An Attractive Looking Family House

Within A Highly Respected Residential Setting

3 Bedrooms, Parking, Garage, Secluded Plot

Set at the very end of this popular location, tucked away, within a larger than average plot, and benefiting from off street parking, together with a garage to the side, this NICELY PRESENTED 3 BEDROOM SEMI DETACHED HOUSE dating originally from the 1930s period with its classic Tudor styling, has been modernised and updated to a very good standard! The interior accommodation features a reception hall, ground floor shower room wc, a well fitted kitchen, charming bay fronted lounge, separate living dining room with a large conservatory off, whilst the first floor features 3 bright bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom wc. Outside, well established hedging and trees to the boundary provide a very secluded plot with raised patio ideal for the summer. There is plenty of space to the side of the house to exploit further for enlargement and of course the loft lends itself for further development subject to local authority planning permission.

Entrance:

Set at the very end of this small enclosed turning, the property occupies a corner location with access from the road leading across a paved drive with an arched porch, panel door with leaded light double glazed side and top panels. Open to:
