Guide Price £725,000

This hidden gem located in the heart of the Town Centre is without doubt one of the most interesting properties we have seen!

Created in 2007, this unique three bedroom detached house is really rather special. With just a door access from Coopers Alley, little can be assumed from this aspect. Once inside, this split level property comes alive and features vaulted ceilings, exposed brickwork, underfloor heating on both ground and first floor levels and double glazing including bi-fold doors opening onto a private hard landscaped garden.

This property also has the benefit of two underground parking spaces within the Coopers Yard development.
