bedroom conversion apartment. This bright and spacious property features a generous size living room with large window overlooking the communal gardens. There is a fitted kitchen with a wide range of storage and worktops and a three piece bathroom. All heated by a gas fired central heating system. Whilst not requiring it this comfortable property is ripe for remodelling.

Communal gardens with a large expanse of lawn and a variety of plants, bushes and trees. The property has its own garage in the block and there is ample communal parking for further vehicles.

From our offices in the High Street head towards Knaphill after crossing the mini roundabout. Grantbourne can be found on your left hand side after a short distance.
