DIRECTIONS

From Duffield Road (A6) approaching from the city centre, turn left onto Ferrers Way, first left again onto Finningley Drive, follow the road to the small field turning left into Harpswell Close where the bungalow will be found on the right.

The gas centrally heated and UPVC double glazed accommodation comprises, spacious entrance lobby and hall, open plan lounge and dining room, conservatory, fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, principle bedroom with fitted wardrobes and en-suite, two further well proportioned bedrooms and main bathroom.

Externally there is an attractive front garden and a long driveway leading to a brick built detached garage. To the rear is a charming well established garden with colourful borders, lawn, patio, greenhouse and shed.

This small cul-de-sac is located off Ferrers Way and Finningley Drive in this highly desirable position close to Duffield Road (A6) for frequent public transport links and also to the many useful local amenities found at the Park Farm shopping centre.

The property is attractively offered for sale with no upward chain and a viewing can be highly recommended.
