DIRECTIONS

Approach Allestree from Derby on Kedleston Road and turn right onto Birchover Way. Turn right into the Park Farm shopping centre and the main carpark can be found on the left. Please observe all local parking restrictions.

Situated in the heart of Allestree, this is a well presented second floor flat which can be either partly furnished or furnished dependant on the tenant. Internally the accommodation is accessed by a secure communal entrance door with staircase and lift leading to the second floor where the property can be found. The property is entered into an entrance hallway with storage cupboards and there is a large lounge/dining room with laminate floor, window and access to a small balcony. The property benefits from a kitchen with integrated appliances, bathroom with electric shower and bedroom with laminate floor.

The property has the advantage of being in the Kedleston Court development with managed communal gardens and car parking close by with ease of access to the Park Farm shopping centre and the many facilities that Allestree provides.

The property is perfectly positioned to the vibrant city centre of Derby aswell as being near the ring road giving onward travel to the A50, A52 and M1 corridor.

Viewing highly recommended.
