Offered to the market with NO ONWARD CHAIN is this superb three bedroom semi-detached family home, built by Taylor Wimpey in 2019 which has been extremely well cared for by its present owner, as well as benefitting from a number of upgrades. This wonderful home is located on a quiet road in the Pine Tree's development, a highly sought after area which is a short distance to both the M40 and High Wycombe train station, offering quick links to London and Birmingham. It also benefits from being situated next to large protected woods, which are ideal for walks and access to The Rye. The property is beautifully presented, and would make an excellent family home. The accommodation includes; entrance hall, guest cloakroom, lounge, spacious study, modern fitted open plan kitchen/dining area with french doors, opening to patio area and rear garden, Master bedroom with family bathroom, two further double bedrooms and a shower room. Additionally, the home offers gas central heating, double glazing, additional fitted wardrobes, large garage with storage area, driveway with parking for two vehicles and an enclosed and level rear garden with large patio. The location of this home also means it is ideally located for all High Wycombe Grammar schools, Wycombe Abbey, and a short walk away from a very good primary school Abbey View. An internal viewing is highly recommended.
