

5 Trinity Place, Easton Street, High Wycombe, Bucks, HP11 1WN

Situated in a sought-after location in High Wycombe, and tucked away just off Easton Street in this private and modern development is this spacious, two-bedroom, first floor apartment, that has been extremely well maintained by its current owner and is offered in excellent condition throughout. The property would make a superb first time purchase and great for anyone looking to commute to London via rail, as this property is just a minute or two walk of the train station, that offers a direct line service into London Marylebone, as well as making a superb buy to let investment with an expected rental figure of circa £1,400 - £1,450 PCM. The accommodation comprises; spacious entrance hallway with plenty of storage, large open plan lounge/diner/modern fitted kitchen area with a nice layout and defined areas, principle bedroom with fitted wardrobes and en-suite bathroom, further double bedroom and modern family shower room. The property further benefits; residents parking permit available for around £60 per year, double glazed, gas central heating, communal courtyard garden which is really well maintained and comes with bike storage, long lease of 999 years and the remaining 6 years of the NHBC guarantee. This really is a stunning apartment and an internal viewing is highly recommended.
