We are truly privileged to market this outstanding landmark property, being set in the very heart of Higher Penwortham, and having been beautifully updated and loved by the current owners. This late Victorian tower was built by Canon Rawstorne to provide clean water to the cottages around Penwortham End. Nowadays, it is a luxurious family home arranged over four floors, with all care and attention taken to preserve and enhance many of the original features, alongside necessary contemporary living. The ground floor offers a stunning quality shaker style bespoke kitchen with a family lounge overlooking the courtyard garden, further dining room and another evening lounge. The first floor offers one of the four double bedrooms with a dressing room and the decadent family bathroom, the second floor offers another generous double bedroom and the third floor provides a stunning suite area where there is a bedroom or sitting area, en suite shower room and a further mezzanine area perfect for a bed area, overlooking Penwortham with a bird's eye view. Your first impression has got to be the superbly designed and constructed Oak beam timber porch and stunning front door, all the windows have been replaced in keeping with the benefits of natural light and unique outlook in mind. Viewing is essential and strictly by appointment with Marie Holmes Estates. Set within Penwortham's vibrant centre with outstanding local schools, services and amenities.
