An amazing opportunity to purchase a fabulous detached true bungalow set within an enviable plot of approximately 1/3 to 1/2 acre plot or thereabouts. Having been an established home of the most extremely reputable local builders, the Jacksons, who not only built this bungalow for their family but numerous other homes around this area. The bungalow sits very well back within it's frontage and the curtilage extends to provide lots of hardstanding for parking, a detached double garage and great size gardens. The bungalow has an impressive entrance hall, two large bedrooms, spacious lounge and dining kitchen and a bathroom, as well as a rear porch where there is access to utility, coal bunker and the garage. The property has great potential for extending the existing property, creating a bigger home or possibly redevelopment of the site, subject to any necessary planning permissions. Close to local services amenities, schools and bus routes. Great motorway connectivity. To fully appreciate the size setting, location and potential this wonderful home has to offer, viewing is essential. Offered with No Chain Delay
